Handwritten text in a historical script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is written in a dense, cursive hand across two pages. The left page features a large, decorative initial 'A' at the top left. The right page has a smaller initial 'E' at the top left. The text is organized into several paragraphs, with some lines indented. The paper shows signs of age, including creases and discoloration. At the bottom of the pages, there are two circular seals or stamps, one on the left and one on the right, which appear to be made of wax or a similar material. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-preserved manuscript or document.
