Handwritten text in a historical German script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is densely packed and covers the entire page. It begins with a large, ornate initial 'D' in the top left corner. The script is a cursive style, characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The text is written on a single sheet of paper, which is slightly aged and shows some staining. The right edge of the page is slightly irregular, suggesting it was part of a bound volume. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved historical manuscript.
