AT-DAI 1.3.1.56.29

Mister President,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

As the bishop of this city I welcome you warmly here in Innsbruck. You- that are those doctors and scientists who work in the field of intensive medicine to help ill people who are in a situation between life and death, a situation we priests also have to deal with a lot. But I welcome you also out of personal thankfulness. I have come to know the blessing of your medical skill with Professor Benzer at the intensive care unit at Innsbruck hospital, and that is why my greeting is much more than just words. It comes from the bottom of my heart: I wish you a nice and successful stay in Innsbruck.
